Who runs Nvidia, and who runs the inquiry

ARC RESEARCH | DAILY MARKET UPDATE | SPOTLIGHT: NVIDIA LEADERSHIP

Who runs Nvidia, and who runs the inquiry

Huang stays CEO during the probe; four executive officers report to him; independent directors oversee the inquiry

Press-reported, unverified: The Information says a relationship facilitated ≥$7.5B of chip shipments to Chinese firms; a shareholder suit alleges investors were misled.

Company said: board sees no sign national security or Nvidia secrets were compromised; Huang supports the review. No successor or interim CEO named.

Sources: Nvidia Newsroom executive bios and fiscal 2026 Form 10-K (officers), 2026 proxy statement and 24 Jun 2026 Form 8-K (board, Huang 3.58% stake at 23 Mar 2026), Nvidia board statement 8 Nov 2026 (inquiry by independent-director committee with outside counsel). Counsel: independent directors statement, 10 Nov (Wachtell Lipton, Joon H. Kim). No photographs by design.
